Proof of identity – Voter advice

Proof of identity

You have been issued with a provisional vote. In order for your vote to be considered, you must provide proof of your identity to the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) before 5:00pm on the Friday after polling day.

A list of acceptable forms of identification and persons who can endorse (or attest) the document are stated on the back of this page.

Note: Provisional New Citizens must provide their Certificate of Australian citizenship.

How do you prove your identity?

By visiting an AEC office

Take this form and one of the acceptable proof of identity documents (see list on back of this page) into an AEC office. To find the location of the nearest office call 13 23 26 or visit the AEC website www.aec.gov.au

OR

By post

Show your acceptable proof of identity document to an authorised person (see lists on back of this page). Photocopy the original document. On the copy, the authorised person must declare they have sighted your original document.

Post the verified copy and this form in the reply paid envelope provided.
Do not post your original proof of identity document.

Your proof of identification documentation must be received by the AEC by:

5:00pm Friday 30 November 2007

Where can I get more information?
